

Overview of the old timber classes with examples

A I	A II	A III	A IV
Waste, shavings from untreated wood	Pallets made of wood materials	Furniture, kitchen and other interior with halogenated organic compounds in the coating but without wood preservatives	Ammo Boxes
Crates, industrial pallets, solid wood	Crates of wood materials	Waste wood from bulky waste (mixed)	Cable drum made of solid wood (made before 1989)
Pallets (Euro pallets) from solid wood	Wood products, timber formwork	Other pallets with composite materiall	Railway sleepers, electricity poles
Fruit and vegetable boxes	Boards, false ceilings, planks from the interior (no harmful contaminants)		Wood from damaged structures (for example fire wood)
Untreated solid wood from construction sites	Doors and frames of interior doors (no harmful contaminants)		Windows, window frames, doors, timbers from the exterior as well as assortments of garden landscaping, garden furniture
Cable drum made of solid wood (made after 1989))	Profile sheets for interior decoration, ceiling panels, decorative beams, etc. (no harmful contaminants)		Timber framing and rafters
Furniture, kitchen and other interior design, natural solid wood	Chipboard		Waste wood from hydraulic, waste wood from dismantled vessels and wagons
	Furniture, kitchen and other interior with no halogenated organic paints and coatings
			